SUMMARY

I'm a passionate Frontend Developer who enjoys building fast, responsive, and user-friendly web applications using React.js, Next.js, and the MERN stack. I have hands-on experience creating dynamic interfaces, managing state, and connecting APIs. Not only that, but I focus on clean design, responsive layouts, and smooth performance. Furthermore, I'm eager to join a team where I can keep learning and help build modern, impactful web experiences.
